

15 CENTS PER WEEK.

BRANDON & BARKSDALE, PROP'S.

If we were in the place of the Chattanooga millish, Gov. Buchanan should have our resignation. We would not serve as a posse to guard convicts for any Governor who abused us.

After hearing Mr. Terrell's speech a south side brother approached him approvingly, "and you say you are a Democrat, Brother Terrell?" "Yes, sir," was the response. "Well, I am a Republican, never voted any other ticket; let's you and I shake hands across the bloody chasm." They shook. Ben said nothing that the Republican could not endorse.

We have solved the Coal Creek problem and it is the simplest thing in the world. There is rebellion, invasion or something of the kind in Russia. Let the Legislature authorize the Governor to call out the militia and let him call the Coal Creek miners, draft them if need be, and go at once to Russia to rescue the Jews from the merciless Czar and his red-headed cut-throats, and let the convicts continue in the mines.

If the Nashville people wish to get rid of the old penitentiary it is time that they were getting up a syndicate or capital in some shape to buy the property. It will require a liberal proposition, covering the full value of the property to induce the Legislature to move it. We are of the opinion that the work of the Commercial Club, placing a very low estimate on the property killed the Legislature on the subject, in regular session.

Mr. Washington replying to Mr. Terrell's sub-treasury fallacy said that the products to be embraced in the sub-treasury scheme are estimated to be worth on an average price two thousand million of dollars. If the government should advance one thousand million dollars and from any cause the produce should decline in price while in store or when sold brings only $800,000,000, he would like to know who would make good the loss of $200,000,000? "Uncle Sam," answered several voices. "Yes," said Mr. Washington, "Uncle Sam, the people would have to be taxed $200,000,000 to make it good." Mr. Terrell replying to this said, "No, it will not be redeemable, it will be allowed to stand out, and will be inflation to that extent." Then the question arises how can sub-treasury notes be as good as gold or on European gold basis if not redeemable? Mr. Terrell cannot explain.

Mrs. Jacob Scandue, of Springfield, Ohio, while visiting with her father-in-law at Gaynor City, Mo., was taken very sick with cholera morbus. A physician was sent for, but as the doctor was not at home, Mr. S. E. White, a merchant of Gaynor City, landed the husband of the sick lady, a small bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, and asked him to try that, and if it did not cure, he need not pay for it; but it did its work, and before returning to their home, they procured another bottle. Uncle John Scandue says he will never be without Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by Owen & Moore.

Cactus Grandiflora, or Night-Blooming Cereus.

Few persons have had the opportunity of witnessing the blooming of this rare plant, which affords the most magnificent of blooms, with an exquisite odor. It is a native of Central America, blooms only at night, and at early dawn all of its glory has departed. Though but few florists attempt its culture, Capt. Crusman, of Evergreen Lodge, has succeeded admirably, as lovers of the beautiful may see who call at T. A. Thomas Drug Co., who have secured two exquisitely handsome specimens and preserved them in alcohol and will take pleasure in showing them.

Merit Wins.

We desire to say to our citizens, that for years we have been selling Dr. King's New Life Pills, Bucklen's Arnica Salve and Electric Bitters, and have never handled remedies that sell as well, or that have given such universal satisfaction. We do not hesitate to guarantee them every time, and we stand ready to refund the purchase price if satisfactory results do not follow their use. These remedies have won their great popularity purely on their merits. Owen & Moore, druggists.

McGeehee and son, Hugh Campbell and sister, Joe Rosenfield, G. E. Cooke and daughter. Mr. Cooke, who has charge of the party from here, requests that the excursionists get their tickets this evening, as it will do much to prevent confusion in the morning, the train leaving at 5:30 early an hour. They will do well also to remember that the train now leaves at 5:10, twenty-five minutes earlier, than heretofore.

Save Your Clover Seed.

Geo. L. Carlisle has purchased a clover huller, and notifies the farmers of this section that he will be prepared to save their clover seed for them this summer. He proposes to hull crops on the shares or for a money consideration. We call special attention to Mr. Carlisle's card and hope that he will find much to do in this line. The neglect of just such matters is one thing that is working a hardship to many farmers who buy their seed, when they could just as well be saved at home and the money spent for them kept at home.

A Pet Humming Bird.

Misses Sallie and Hattie Lee Yancey have a pet humming bird, the only one we have ever heard of being tamed, and it is both a beauty and an entertaining curiosity. It is a young bird, captured recently, and is already gentle and takes to its owners with delight. Miss Sallie caught the pretty thing, it came to nestle in her hair while she was engaged with the flowers, and became entangled in the ringlets. Miss Hattie quickly arranged a box covered with thin gauze or mosquito bar, in which it was confined.
